

OCTOBER PROGRAM:

Changing The Illinois Legislature by Changing the Illinois Constitution: Limitations and Frustrations

When: October 21, 2014

Time: 7 p.m.

Where: Champaign Public Library
Robeson Meeting Room C

Speakers: Professor Brian J. Gaines,
University of Illinois and Institute of Government and Public Affairs,
Trisha Crowley, LWVCC

Citizen frustration with Illinois government, and specifically with the Illinois Legislature, have led to recent efforts to modify the Illinois Constitution to restrict terms of legislators and to change how legislative districts are drawn. Both these efforts have currently been struck down by the courts, although the term limits proposal is on appeal.

Trisha Crowley will describe the limitations in the current Illinois Constitution on incremental modifications of the structure of Illinois government.

Professor Gaines will discuss what impacts might have been expected if these efforts had been successful at the ballot box, what other changes by citizen referendum are possible, and whether a vote to approve a future Constitutional Convention is not, in fact, a good option.

The purpose of the program is to educate members about the limited ways to change the structure of Illinois government, and to help evaluate future efforts and future ConCon votes.

Remember the ERA? Following the November election, a three-state strategy will kick in to complete the work of ratification. Illinois is one of the remaining states. LWVCC is one of six co-sponsors of a meeting hosted by AAUW to inform us of recent developments and what we can do during this final push.

WHEN? Tuesday, October 14 from 6 to 8 p.m.

WHERE? Pizza M/Cafeteria & Co.,
208 W. Main St., Urbana

WHY? Why do we need the ERA? What is the ERA? What do we need to do to get this Amendment ratified?

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

League of Women Voters of Champaign County

'All politics is local'

— Tip O'Neil

Despite the talk about big money and nasty political ads in our nation and state campaigns, the genius of our democracy rests in local political races. Locally, we can literally reach out and touch candidates who choose to run for county board, county offices, and even candidates for state offices. We encounter them at street festivals and the grocery store. How cool!

Not so this year in Champaign County. Consider:

- Of 11 county board districts, only 3 have competitive races.
- Of 4 county-wide offices, only 1 has a race.

There's more. LWVCC – along with The News-Gazette and the NAACP – co-sponsor Candidates' Forums which allow citizens an opportunity to observe the candidates side by side, responding — unrehearsed — to questions that deal with matters important to us as a county community: the state of our justice system, economic development, budget priorities.

Not so this year in Champaign County. Consider: two county board candidates were unresponsive or unavailable to participate; the one county-wide candidate made other plans as the opposition switched candidates. Even the Congressional candidates agreed to participate but only with a shorter time span than what local media proposed.

Side-stepping local forums is not good for our democratic system. And we cannot blame the Koch Brothers or negative advertising.

Sincerely,

Barbara Wysocki

LWVCC President

IN MEMORIAM: Susan Stone

Long-time League member Susan Stone died on Tuesday, August 26, after a long illness. Her activity in League led her to many other activities in the community at large. Among her many accomplishments were: CCDC, the Regional Planning Commission, and a centennial tree project. She served on the Urbana Park District and the Urbana Library Foundation Board. She served on the U.S. Judicial Nominations Commission of the Central District of Illinois.

A memorial service is set for 2 p.m. Saturday, November 8, at Clark-Lindsey Village.

REDISTRICTING: WHAT'S NEW? WHERE IS IT GOING?

It's gotten a bit quiet on the Redistricting front, but not entirely silent. For the last couple of months, debriefing sessions have been held around the state to assess the experience in local communities. Most of these meetings have involved League chapters since League activity was critical to amassing the number of signatures.

On Sept. 16th, CHANGE Illinois -- the coalition that set up YES FOR INDEPENDENT MAPS -- met to do the same kind of debriefing. More than 20 were in attendance, including two from LWVIL, to assess what worked well and what adjustments would be necessary to launch a successful third attempt.

It will probably be early in 2015 before a decision is announced regarding a third attempt at another redistricting effort.

CALLING ALL COURT WATCHERS

The UI College of Law and LWVCC has had a long-standing partnership in a court watching program. In recent years, our participation has dropped off, and the College of Law is asking to rekindle this collaboration. Observation programs always benefit from fresh eyes and ears. Certainly, the activity of a courtroom can provide much to take in and process, so having more observers would enhance the experience for everyone concerned.

The College of Law will train volunteers to observe and to report their findings. Your observing schedule can be very flexible and, of course, it's all done during the day. No holiday or weekend work.

CHARTER SCHOOL UPDATE POSITION GROUP TO MEET OCT. 16

Our local committee on Charter School Position Update will begin meeting on Thursday, October 16. The local committee, consisting of Theresa Michelson and Sue Phillips, co-chairs, and Lillian Katz, Jo Kibbee, Pat Meller, Peggy Patten, and Susan Taylor, will meet to review materials forwarded by the state League. Those materials can be found at <http://www.lwvil.org/charter-schools.html>. Our November 18 meeting will allow all League members to express their opinions.

In 2001, the LWVIL adopted a position on Charter Schools. Since the original position was adopted there have been many new developments including the creation of the state Commission on Charter schools, the arrival of virtual charters, the rapid increase in the number of charter campuses in Illinois and the existence of numerous studies examining the effects of charter schools. In light of these developments, delegates to the 2013 LWVIL state convention approved updating the Charter Schools Position during the 2013-2015 biennium.

At the state level, the charter schools position update committee has been researching, creating, and debating questions addressing a variety of issues regarding charter schools--ranging from Authorization to Zero tolerance discipline, with consideration for policies which might apply to all public schools, including charters.

Anyone else is interested in being on the committee must be able to attend the first meeting at 9 a.m. on October 16 at 2013 Silver Ct W, Urbana. If you have questions or would like more information, contact Theresa at 344-4078 or thmichelson@gmail.com.

VOTER BEGINS MOVE TOWARD E-NEWSLETTER

We hope you have enjoyed receiving access to the Voter newsletter electronically before your paper copy arrives. This month President Barb Wysocki sent an e-mail with a link you could click to view the newsletter online. For now, each of our newsletter subscribers will also receive a paper copy.

Next month you will again receive an e-mail with a link to the online newsletter. We will also include the newsletter as a PDF attachment to the e-mail for those of you who prefer to read it that way. In the future, we will also provide the option to remove your name from the paper newsletter mailing list so you will no longer receive the paper copy.

If you would rather not receive the newsletter via e-mail, please contact Margaret Olson at olson@shout.net. If you have any questions or comments about this process, please feel free to contact our webmaster, Corrie Proksa, at webmaster@lww-champaigncounty.org.
